those curious stories all [illegible] Mary Ros done resolved not to
H. [illegible] M.
[illegible] being
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]

us I was away. I asked Douglas to write for the Bell as Webb suggested to us & I think he will. I have had one or two notes from Webb. He says he has sent de la Rue's Stationary through your Paris box: no it is not so either. It is to come direct from London. Webb says "I was so fortunate in meeting your sisters as to think them beyond what even I hoped for. So you may imagine what glory I was in. But it was no wonder I enjoyed my visit for I was made more of than I am used to be, and let us say what we will against flattery it is very gratifying to be made comfortable by it."

next Aug & in the winter. I gave the see that it cover
body on your backs might all have a very good time together. Tell Maria I treated Eliza with the greatest attention & she told me lots of things & I was as romantic & shushy as ever in my presence I cannot get up there tenderness for simply except with me of the opposite sex. He sent me a letter of flowers in [illegible] seems is expressed in such terms [illegible] the profane expletive " [illegible]
end of autumn come to Paris & pay the please my heart, sympathy for I did not do any of you any harm. I hate water in England but I think in Paris you